| The Constant Friendship Historical Marker is a commemorative object that denotes the site of a colonial land grant to Colonel Thomas White. The historical marker was placed by the Harford County Historical Society at an unknown date. Lake Shore Markers of Erie, Pennsylvania manufactured the marker. Located within the State of Maryland right-of-way along MD 924 (Emmorton Road), the marker is accessible to the public. The marker is currently embedded in a grassy area and projects about eight feet above grade. A round metal post supports an irregularly-shaped iron sign that is approximately 36 inches high and 40 inches wide. The State of Maryland seal tops the sign. The inscriptions on the marker's front and rear faces are identical and easily decipherable. The text consists of black letters on a silver background, and reads as follows: |
| "Constant Friendship" Acquired 1761 by Colonel Thomas White 1704-1779 Largest colonial landowner in this part of Maryland, Deputy Surveyor-General of Baltimore (then including Harford) County, Father of Bishop William White, first presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church and Chaplain of the Continental Congress. Constant Friendship Historical Marker

The marker is a commemorative object that was designed and constructed after the occurrence of an important historic event (an early colonial land grant) and after the life of important persons (Colonel Thomas White and his son William White). The historical marker is not directly associated with Constant Friendship or with the Whites' productive lives, but serves as evidence of a later generation's recordation of the past.

The Constant Friendship Historical Marker is not eligible for the National Register of Historic Places (NRHP). Commemorative properties are among those properties that ordinarily are not considered eligible for inclusion in the NRHP unless they meet special requirements. A commemorative property must not only meet basic NRHP criteria, but also the special requirements of Criteria Consideration F (Commemorative Properties); it can be eligible if design, age, tradition, or symbolic value has invested it with its own exceptional significance. The Constant Friendship Historical Marker is not significant for its architectural, artistic, or other design qualities. The marker has not acquired significance after the time of its creation through age, tradition, or symbolic value. The loss of the Constant Friendship estate to modern development does not strengthen the case for consideration of this commemorative resource.
